

Please delay any vote or decision on this issue until the matter has been debated publicly. Reducing the limits of broadcast and media ownership is an extremely important step with wide-ranging consequences which have not been fully debated or considered by the very people who will be affected by them.